First system of musical notation. The treble staff contains a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, and the bass staff contains a harmonic accompaniment of chords. The system is divided into four measures. The first measure is marked with a fermata and the instruction "Ped. Con amore." followed by an asterisk. The subsequent measures are also marked with "Ped." and an asterisk.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody, and the bass staff continues the harmonic accompaniment. The system is divided into four measures, each marked with "Ped." and an asterisk.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melody with a fermata in the first measure, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff features a complex accompaniment of chords, some marked with a fermata. The system is divided into four measures, each marked with "Ped." and an asterisk. The first measure is also marked with "mf".

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody, and the bass staff continues the complex accompaniment of chords. The system is divided into four measures, each marked with "Ped." and an asterisk.

First system of musical notation. The right hand (treble clef) plays a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes. The left hand (bass clef) plays a complex accompaniment with many beamed sixteenth notes. Pedal points (Ped.) are indicated above the first, second, third, and fourth measures. A dynamic marking of mf is present in the second measure. Asterisks (*) are placed above the second, third, and fourth measures.

Second system of musical notation. Similar to the first system, with a melodic line in the right hand and a dense accompaniment in the left hand. Pedal points (Ped.) are indicated above the first, second, third, and fourth measures. Asterisks (*) are placed above the second, third, and fourth measures.

First system of musical notation. The right hand (treble clef) contains a melodic line with a trill in the first measure, followed by eighth and sixteenth notes. The left hand (bass clef) features a series of chords, each marked with a pedaling instruction "Ped." and a triplet of eighth notes. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Second system of musical notation. The right hand continues the melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The left hand plays chords, with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking in the first measure. A crescendo (cres.) is indicated over the final two measures.

Third system of musical notation. The right hand features a melodic line with a trill and eighth notes. The left hand plays chords, starting with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic and transitioning to a piano (p) dynamic in the third measure. A crescendo (cres.) is marked over the final two measures.

Fifth system of musical notation. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The left hand plays chords, marked with "Ped." and triplets. A crescendo (cres.) is indicated over the third measure, followed by a fortissimo (f) dynamic marking in the final measure. The system concludes with a double bar line.
